

Every student who is registered for classes pays a health fee and this fee allows them to use the Health Center. In addition, all registered students are required to have some health insurance. This requirement ensures that students will have access to medical care that is not provided at the Health Center. You can use the Health Center whether you have the Caltech Health insurance plan or some other approved health insurance plan!